

WALL ST. STOCK REPORTS.

Passage of the Silver Bill Had Little Effect on the Street.

The Bears Make a Slightly Successful Raid.

Misquippa Pacific Declares its Usual 1 Per Cent. Dividend.

HE passage of a free coinage bill by the Senate did not meet with any response from the Street to-day, because President Harrison and Secretary Windom are known to be opposed to the measure.

A further announcement of $754,000 gold for shipment to Europe, making $2,254,000 since Saturday, and fears that additional amounts will go forward were used by the bears and room-traders to depress the market.

In the absence of supporting orders, prices easily yielded to 2 1/2 per cent. Atchafson, O. T., Missouri Pacific, Rock Island and Mexican Central being particularly weak. Sugar and other certificates dropped 2 1/2 per cent.

Silver certificates first rose 1/2 to 100, and subsequently receded to 104 1/2. Private cables say that Bar Silver in London advanced to 49d. per ounce, but public advice gave the price at 48 1/2.

The Missouri Pacific directors have declared their quarterly dividend of 1 per cent., payable July 15.

It is reported that the ticket for the Sugar Trust's annual election has been made up. The only change is the substitution of Mr. Wm. Haverford for Mr. Sen.

Many called easy at 3 1/4 a 3 1/2 per cent. to call for.

Foreign exchange was quiet and firm. Stocks showed heavy and on the decline. Total sales, 192,000 shares.

THE FOLLOWING QUOTATIONS.

Stock	Price	Stock	Price
Atchafson	104 1/2	Missouri Pacific	104 1/2
Rock Island	104 1/2	Mexican Central	104 1/2
Sugar	104 1/2	Other certificates	104 1/2

THE AMENDED SILVER BILL.

Refusal of the House to Immediately Consider It.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The silver bill, as amended by the Senate, was presented to the House at 12 o'clock.

The announcement was greeted with long applause on the Democratic side.

The House was in Committee of the Whole on the Indian Appropriation, and Bland immediately moved that the Committee be discharged.

THE WORKTOWN HOME AGAIN.

Detached from the Evolution Squadron by Naval Orders.

The Crew Had Some Hard Work, but Some Fun, Too.

The United States steel cruiser Yorktown, Commander F. E. Chadwick, which has been cruising about with the Squadron of Evolution, has returned home, and officers and men aboard of her are happy to see once more their "own city," as they term New York.

The Yorktown weighed its anchor off Quarantine at 6 o'clock this morning and began to slowly creep up the bay. Fifteen minutes later she came to an anchorage off Liberty Island.

Then Commander Chadwick came ashore to make his report to the Governor at the Navy-Yard, and those left on board began the cleaning-up process. The cruiser arrived at Sandy Hook last night from Porto Grande, Cape de Verde Islands, under orders from the Navy Department detaching from the Squadron which proceeds to Brazil.

The Squadron, which consisted of Yorktown, Boston, Atlanta and Chicago, has been abroad since December. In that time both officers and men have had constant practice in naval maneuvers and the advantage of seeing the natives supported by other great vessels.

They have had hard work, but have also had some recreation, such as baseball, boating and other sports.

They also had a severe attack of "La Grippe," which was contracted at Lisbon, and at the time the ship was in the harbor of that city.

An EVENING WORLD reporter was towed down the bay and up aboard the Yorktown after she anchored this morning.

Lieut. Colby when the reporter was ushered into his office.

"We are going to get back. We have had a good time, and a hard time. Since we left the men have been drilled constantly."

"We left Porto Grande on the 7th inst. and made the trip in the unseasonably good time of 10 days, 8 hours and 27 minutes."

The daily runs were: 245, 280, 300, 320, 340, 360, 380, 400, 420, 440, 460, 480, 500, 520, 540, 560, 580, 600, 620, 640, 660, 680, 700, 720, 740, 760, 780, 800, 820, 840, 860, 880, 900, 920, 940, 960, 980, 1000.

NEVER WAS IN THE ARMY.

Alleged Grounds for the Expulsion of a Prominent G. A. R. Man.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 18.—A sensation has been created here in G. A. R. circles by the announcement that Col. A. P. Newcomb, who figured in the National Encampment of G. A. R., had been indignantly expelled from the Post of which he was a member on the grounds that it had been discovered that he had never been in the army.

The affair will create a great sensation throughout the country. Col. A. P. Newcomb was one of the prominent members of the G. A. R. in the United States.

"KILLS HIS PONY" NO MORE.

One of Buffalo Bills' Indian's Dies in Bellevue Hospital.

Oshtoke, or "Kills His Pony," the Sioux Indian, died in Bellevue Hospital this morning.

Kills His Pony was a Dakota, and had been with Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show in Europe. Saturday he arrived in this port on the steamship Sals very ill with consumption.

CUT MR. KELLER'S THROAT.

Jersey City Thugs Attack and Nearly Murder a New York Man.

FOREIGN NEWS BY CABLE.

Cholera Yet Spreading in the Stricken Province of Valencia.

A New Manifesto Put Forth by Russian Revolutionists.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

MADRID, June 18.—The spread of the cholera scourge continues and the terror of the people increases accordingly.

Four deaths are reported at Malaga. Fatal cases have also occurred in Albaida, Costello, Carcassonne and Jativa.

Cordons of troops are being drawn about the infected province of Valencia, in accordance with Government orders.

Found a Defaulting Munich Treasurer in St. Louis.

(DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.)

MUNICH, June 18.—Herr Ottenberger, the defaulting Secretary of the Trade Association here, is discovered to be in St. Louis practicing as a physician.

His extradition has been asked for.

Again the Message in the Bottle.

(DUNLAP CABLE NEWS SPECIAL.)

PARIS, June 18.—A bottle has been found in the Rhine here containing the following message:

June 4.—Ship Ariosto, Liverpool; ship sinking; no hope.

(Signed) J. STEWART, Captain.

French and Native Lose Heavily in a Battle in Senegal.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

PARIS, June 18.—A battle has been fought in the Senegal here which has caused much turmoil among King's County Republicans, and has received the support of scores of influential friends in both camps for the appointment of Postmaster.

The appointment will be very important, as the large portion of the Republicans of Brooklyn and will undoubtedly be promptly confirmed by the Senate.

The Brooklyn Postmaster's salary is $4,000 a year and the term is four years.

DEATH OF EX-ALD. PEARSON.

The Injuries He Received on the Erie Railroad Result Fatally.

COLLINS FOR POSTMASTER.

Mr. Harrison Tries Again at a Brooklyn Appointment.

Ex-Alderman George J. Collins to Succeed Postmaster Hendrix.

President Harrison has to-day nominated ex-Alderman George J. Collins to be Postmaster of Brooklyn, in place of Col. Andrew D. Baird, who was appointed and declined several days ago.

The appointment is made for the term beginning July 1, when the term of the present Postmaster, Joseph C. Hendrix, expires.

Great interest has attached to this appointment among Brooklyn adherents of the Administration party, and a lively contest has been carried on by the candidates of the different factions into which the Brooklyn Republican party is divided.

The appointment of ex-Alderman Collins, who belongs to no faction, is believed to have been made in the interests of harmony and to placate the politicians of the G. A. R.

Mr. Collins is about forty-five years of age. He is a very popular citizen of the twenty-first ward, and the leader of the Republican organization in that ward. He is the Grand Master of the Republic. He is engaged in the plumbing business, and is said to be very well-to-do.

Mr. Collins has an excellent record as an alderman, having served very acceptably to his party.

He has studiously avoided becoming identified with either side in the Woodruff-Baldwin factional fight which has caused so much turmoil among King's County Republicans, and has received the support of scores of influential friends in both camps for the appointment of Postmaster.

The appointment will be very important, as the large portion of the Republicans of Brooklyn and will undoubtedly be promptly confirmed by the Senate.

The Brooklyn Postmaster's salary is $4,000 a year and the term is four years.

BLOWN UP AGAIN.

Third Outbreak of the Broadway and Fulton Street Volcano.

Narrow Escapes from Personal Injury—Great Property Loss.

Steam-Heating Company Officially Blamed for the Explosions.

Commissioner of Public Works Thomas Gilroy made his report to the Mayor late this afternoon on the explosion and miniature Vesuvius at Fulton street and Broadway on Thursday last week.

Accompanying it was the report of Chief Engineer Birdsell and Engineer Loomis, of the Department of Public Works, who have been conducting the investigation into its cause.

The blame for the great public inconvenience which the eruption occasioned is placed on the steam-heating company, which, in making the excavation, did not sufficiently protect the gas mains in the vicinity. One of its workmen lighted the gas.

Great difficulty was experienced in securing witnesses, many of them apparently having been spirited away, whether at the instigation of the corporations concerned in the investigation or not is not known.

One of the big pipes under Fulton street, belonging to that greatest and most dangerous of New York's suburban perils, the Steam Heating Company, burst again this morning, and wrought a great amount of damage to property, besides putting to flight a dozen or more people employed in the busiest section of the city.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

BLOWN UP AGAIN.

Third Outbreak of the Broadway and Fulton Street Volcano.

Narrow Escapes from Personal Injury—Great Property Loss.

Steam-Heating Company Officially Blamed for the Explosions.

Commissioner of Public Works Thomas Gilroy made his report to the Mayor late this afternoon on the explosion and miniature Vesuvius at Fulton street and Broadway on Thursday last week.

Accompanying it was the report of Chief Engineer Birdsell and Engineer Loomis, of the Department of Public Works, who have been conducting the investigation into its cause.

The blame for the great public inconvenience which the eruption occasioned is placed on the steam-heating company, which, in making the excavation, did not sufficiently protect the gas mains in the vicinity. One of its workmen lighted the gas.

Great difficulty was experienced in securing witnesses, many of them apparently having been spirited away, whether at the instigation of the corporations concerned in the investigation or not is not known.

One of the big pipes under Fulton street, belonging to that greatest and most dangerous of New York's suburban perils, the Steam Heating Company, burst again this morning, and wrought a great amount of damage to property, besides putting to flight a dozen or more people employed in the busiest section of the city.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

"IF I HAD ONLY."

Third Outbreak of the Broadway and Fulton Street Volcano.

Narrow Escapes from Personal Injury—Great Property Loss.

Steam-Heating Company Officially Blamed for the Explosions.

Commissioner of Public Works Thomas Gilroy made his report to the Mayor late this afternoon on the explosion and miniature Vesuvius at Fulton street and Broadway on Thursday last week.

Accompanying it was the report of Chief Engineer Birdsell and Engineer Loomis, of the Department of Public Works, who have been conducting the investigation into its cause.

The blame for the great public inconvenience which the eruption occasioned is placed on the steam-heating company, which, in making the excavation, did not sufficiently protect the gas mains in the vicinity. One of its workmen lighted the gas.

Great difficulty was experienced in securing witnesses, many of them apparently having been spirited away, whether at the instigation of the corporations concerned in the investigation or not is not known.

One of the big pipes under Fulton street, belonging to that greatest and most dangerous of New York's suburban perils, the Steam Heating Company, burst again this morning, and wrought a great amount of damage to property, besides putting to flight a dozen or more people employed in the busiest section of the city.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

Crowds of indignant citizens gathered around the scene of this latest outbreak of the underground monster, and demanded the Steam Heating Company as dangerous and an intolerable nuisance.

This morning's break is the third wreck caused by these pipes within a week. The first happened at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the intense heat of the steam caused the pipes to burst, and the second at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst, and the third at the corner of Broadway and Fulton street, where the pipes burst.

SMILER TO DIE BY VOLTS.

Maggie Draine's Murderer Hears His Death Sentence To-Day.

Harris A. Smiler, the infamous printer who was convicted of murder in the first degree for shooting and killing one of his wives, named Maggie Draine, at 214 Seventh avenue, on April 3, was arraigned for sentence this morning before Judge Fitzgerald in Part II, General Session.

The courtroom was crowded with spectators.

After the preliminary routine business was disposed of, Smiler was called to the bar.

The doorman approached the railing with his head bowed and the same swelling expression on his face that has characterized him during his trial.

Lawyer Heinemann, counsel for Smiler, tried to get a postponement of sentence until Friday on the ground that he had just been retained in the case and desired to have a consultation with his client before he went to the gallows.

The motion was denied and Judge Fitzgerald proceeded to impose sentence.

He addressed Smiler, saying that he had been convicted of the heaviest crime known to the law, and that he was sentenced to die by the electric chair.

Smiler was taken to the electric chair by Sheriff Burke and hurried back to the Tomb.

His case will be appealed.

STRUCK DOWN AND DYING.

Tailor Kunster Murderously Assaulted by Two Men.

Marks Kunster, a merchant tailor, of 129 Delancey street, was terribly assaulted by two men this morning in front of his home. He was thrown to the sidewalk and his skull was fractured. He was taken to the Gouverneur Hospital.

Guido Aaron and his son, Samuel, are accused of the crime. The father was arrested at 12:30 o'clock. Coroner Levy was called to the hospital to take Kunster's ante-mortem statement. The doctors said he could not live.

In his statement to Coroner Schultz Kunster said:

"I was coming downstairs when an unknown man living in the same house struck me on the head with a brick. He said he would strike me again if I did not get up. I was taken to the hospital and that is all I know."

The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital. The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital.

The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital. The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital.

The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital. The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital.

The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital. The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital.

The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital. The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital.

The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital. The Aaron family are tenants of Kunster. Kunster's wife and two children are in the hospital.

RACING. BLUE ROCK.

Shows a Clean Pair of Heels to the Speedy Civil Service.

ADELINA WON UNDER A PULL.

Mr. Pulsifer Wants to Match Tenny Against Salvator and Cassius.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)

EVERYTHING is back to its normal state on the track to-day, and the talent are happy once more.

There is a good crowd present, but the weather is very hot, which caused many to remark that it is fortunate it was not so yesterday, as there would surely have been a number of persons overcome by the heat in the hot sun.

Mr. Pulsifer thinks that as much as Tenny is ever, and to back up his opinion he is willing to enter into a sweepstakes, and will match Tenny to run against Salvator and Cassius for $5,000 a corner, the Association to add a purse if they are fit.

The conditions of the sweepstakes will be to run at the same weights and distance as the other races, a value of $5,000, and to run at 100 and 120 yards. The race to be run on July 1st when the track is in good condition.

If $5,000 is too much, then Mr. Pulsifer will run for $2,500. The latter amount is equivalent to a 50-50 bet on the Tenny people.

If the sweepstakes people do not care to enter in the race, then Mr. Pulsifer is willing to make a single match with Salvator, either of the races, if arranged, to be run at the same time.

Civil Service was the favorite for the first race, but it is evident that he is not a true runner, as he has lost his head in the heat of the race.

Second race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Results of the races:

First race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Second race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Third race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Fourth race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Fifth race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Sixth race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Seventh race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Eighth race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.

Ninth race, for all ages, at 200 yards, with $500 a side, and a half for the winner.